Philip Vagnani and wife of Northfield, together with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Scampini, started on a two-day automobile trip this morning to Woodsville and other New Hampshire towns.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gauthier, for several years occupants of a farm near Berlin pond, have disposed of their interest and this morning left for Springfield, Mass., to take up a residence.

Alexander Edward, who, with his wife and family, came to Barre last Friday, has returned to his home in Wollaston, Mass., but his family will remain for an indefinite period at the home of Mrs. Isabella Johnston of 77 Blackwell street.

Samuel Rivett of Glens Falls, N. Y., brother of Mrs. A. J. Lorange of 104 Summer street, who was called here by the death of Edmund Lorange last Saturday, left this morning for Winchendon, Mass., to visit with his daughter before returning to his home.

Lieut. Archie McDonald of the Rainbow division arrived in Barre yesterday for a few days' visit with friends and relatives in this city. Since his departure with Co. H of Montpelier in 1917 his parents moved to Springfield, Mass., where he will return in a few days.

Homer Bassett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bassett of Fairview place, has secured employment in the quartermaster's department at Camp Devens and left for Ayer, Mass., last night. A delegation of Pleasant street ladies and others were at the station this morning to bid adieu to Mrs. James Stephen, who is going to Warren, Ohio, to reside after 30 years' residence in Barre. Her husband went some time ago to Warren, where he is engaged in business. A few days ago the friends of Mrs. Stephen presented her a thermos bottle as a token of their friendship. Mrs. Stephen has been well known in Barre and will be greatly missed by a large number of people.

One of the best display of captured German articles made its appearance in the window of B. W. Hooker & Co.'s furniture store yesterday. Various articles picked up or captured by either Capt. Harold J. Cutler or Lieut. Neil Hooker on the battlefields of France and Germany give one a fair conception of the scientific developments which the Huns employed against the allied armies. A number of French souvenirs, some United States army equipment and one very conspicuous object, a black leather traveling bag which started with Lieut. Hooker from Barre brand new, are among the collection. The bag is still in good condition though somewhat discolored with usage in the muddy encampments in France.

John Bossi, Angelo Rossi, G. Broggi and Marilio Davrio motored to Pigeon pond in Plainfield yesterday on a trout-fishing expedition. A large brook which enters the pond was the central locality in which they endeavored to procure some of the speckled rarities. With the protection of a pair of high rubber boots, Mr. Bossi managed to reach a large boulder protruding out of the water but quite unexpectedly his feet shot into the air and he disappeared in the water for a brief time only. The swift current at this point made swimming difficult but with a natural instinctiveness he clinched his hands upon a root extending out over the water and with the aid of his friends was able to reach the bank, though completely exhausted.

TRIED THE TONIC TREATMENT AND REGAINED HEALTH

Maine Woman Finds That Rich Blood Strengthens Nerves and Improves Digestion.

There are thousands of people who daily endure minor ills because they don't feel sick enough to consult a physician. They are not sick enough to give up their work and go to bed, but, as they themselves describe it, they're not well. A majority are suffering from the results of weak blood and the symptoms include indigestion, headache, palpitation of the heart, lack of ambition and exhaustion after little effort.

This was the experience of Mrs. Elizabeth G. Conley, of No. 35 Summer street, Lewiston, Me., and she didn't gain relief until she tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. She says:

"My strength seemed to have been drained from my body by overwork. My blood was so thin that I was always run down, without strength or ambition. My color was poor, and I felt very nervous. I couldn't sleep well and didn't have any appetite.

"Several of my friends had used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills with benefit, and they spoke so highly of them that I got a box. After the second package I improved so much that I was convinced that it was the remedy that I needed and I continued the treatment until my strength was built up. My color improved and I had new ambition for my work. I'm no longer nervous and sleep soundly. I can strongly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as a tonic."

Your own druggist can supply you with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or you can order direct from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., enclosing fifty cents for one box or $2.50 for six boxes. Write to-day for the free booklet "Building Up the Blood."—Adv.

TALK OF THE TOWN

New line of violin and banjo strings just in at Bailey's Music Rooms.

A meeting of the board of directors of the Barre Woman's club will be held in Aldrich hall Friday evening, May 16, at 7 o'clock. The president urges each member to make a special effort to attend this meeting.

Music lovers in this vicinity will be offered a rare treat at city hall, Montpelier, Wednesday night, May 21, when Miss Marian Keeler of Burlington, accorded high honors among musical critics, and without doubt the most talented singer produced in Vermont, will be heard in a recital of songs, assisted by William Windsor Ward, cellist. The following from the Burlington Free Press of Feb. 10, 1919, is of interest: "Miss Keeler was accorded the unusual honor of an audition by Maestro Cleofonte Campanini, director of the Chicago Grand Opera company, now playing in New York. When the great authority who engaged Mme. Galli-Curci consents to hear any 15-year-old singer, it is a matter of distinctive merit, and the master's verdict upon Miss Marian's voice and singing were no less gratifying, as he expressed the desire to keep in touch with her, hear her on her next visit to the city, and even volunteered his opinion that it was 'a beautiful voice' and 'she might one day be in his company of artists.'—adv.
